

CIVIL WAR BALL

Saturday April 16
The Union League of Philadelphia
140 South Broad Street
Philadelphia PA 19102

Have you ever danced the Grand Polonaise? The Fireman's Polka, the Baltimore Quick Step, or the Virginia Reel? Even if you have, join us on Saturday 16th for our 11th annual Civil War Ball. Considered one of the finest period balls on the east coast, you will enjoy the music of the Philadelphia Brigade Band as they play the favorite music and dances of the Civil War period. The Dance Master, Briant Bohleke, will help you learn the steps before you take your first step. It is the 19th century experience of the year. Reservations are limited to ensure the best dancing conditions possible. Period costume or black tie is encouraged.

When: cocktails(cash bar) in the Lincoln Memorial Room and Library Lounge at 6PM, dinner at 7PM, and dancing at 8PM. Cost: $85 per person, inclusive of tax and gratuity. For information or reservations, call Jim Mundy at 215-587-5592 or email mundyj@unionleague.org.

A block of rooms has been reserved for attendees at the Doubletree, Broad & Locust Streets, for $149. To reserve, call the Doubletree at 215-893-1600, and reference the Union League Civil War Ball. Cancellations must be made by April 14th.
